to Head of Saint – Petersburg's Corporation of professional builders

Kaplan E.L.

Dear Doctor Kaplan!

We highly appreciate Your professional experience and reputation in the Russian construction market and offer Your Consortium of Russian companies to participate in the construction works for rebuilding of the economy of Iraq. This program is for the period of more than 5 years and costs about $ 500 billion. Your Russian companies can count on high priorities in this long – term program because of good relations that we have been developed over many years of multilateral cooperation between our two countries.

We invite You and recommended by You Russian companies to visit the Republic of Iraq in the first quarter of 2013 to discuss the future collaborations and signing the first contracts for the construction of the main irrigation canal, water supply systems and sewage treatment plants in 22 provinces of our country, social housing, hospitals and health centers on territory of Iraq.

With hope for fruitful cooperation!
